

COAST TO COASTLESS

IMPERIAL ESB CANADIAN QUAD LABORATION

Limited Edition Release

Story – At the 2014 Canadian Beer Awards in Fredericton, NB, four award-winning breweries from across Canada met and established a mutual admiration society based on respect for one another's creative brewing: Phillips (BC), Flying Monkeys (ON), Trou du Diable (QC), and Garrison (NS). This brew-mance resulted in a Cross-Canada, four-brewery collaboration, or a "Quad-laboration," spanning coast to coast –and a few coast-less provinces in between.

Style– We created a definitively Canadian ESB: a malty, reddish strong English ale with a North American hop profile. Like our country, the ESB has its roots in England but a spirit that is strong and purely Canadian.

Taste – Amped up to a 7.6% ABV, this ruddy brown ale has a hefty body full of biscuity and caramel malts edged with earthy, tea-like hops.

Serve With– Bold, flavourful barbecued meats smothered in sweet sauce, salty chacuterie, or strong cheeses.

Drinkers – For Craft Drinkers who long to follow the national craft beer scene, the craft beer curious, and established craft beer supporters. adventurous patrons desiring a special beer experience.
